R. L. Gaskins,
Merchant, Dies

Funeral Services To Be Conducted This Afternoon at Kingsboro Home

Suffolk, Nov. 9.—Richard L. Gaskins, 67, one of Suffolk's pioneer merchants and member of an old and prominent Nansemond County family, died this morning at 1 o'clock, after an illness of almost a year, at his home at Rose Hill, Kingsboro.

Mr. Gaskins was the son of John Richard and Fannie Savage Gaskins. He had been, until the past year, in business in Suffolk for 40 years. He was known throughout this area as a man of upright and honorable character, and a merchant of the finest ethical dealings. He was a member of Main Street Methodist Church and was a generous donor to civic and charitable activities of the community.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Anna Hurff Gaskins; a daughter, Miss Frances Gaskins, who is a teacher in the faculty of the school at Crozier; five sisters, Mrs. L. Frank Ames, Mrs. John G. Eberwine, Mrs. Gertrude Arthur, Mrs. Glenwood Brinkley, of Driver, and Mrs. Charles Berger, of Norfolk, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be conducted at the residence Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, by Dr. A. L. Franklin, pastor of Main Street Methodist Church. Burial will be in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

Active pallbearers will be the nephews of the deceased, Vernon G., Earl T., F. Bruce, and George K. Eberwine, F. Marion, Richard G., Irving T., and James S. Arthur, and James L. Edwards, all of Driver.
